

The Association of Physicians of Australasia

Scientific Meeting to be held in the Hall of the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons on April 16th and 17th, 1937.

FRIDAY, APRIL 16th.

1. p.m.—Luncheon at the Oriental Hotel.
- 2 p.m.—Dr. Max Burnet, "The Present Outlook in Influenza."
- 2.45 p.m.—Dr. E. Graeme Robertson, "Intracranial Aneurisms with special relation to their surgical treatment."
- 3.30 p.m.—Dr. A. S. Walker, "Report of unusual case of Undulant Fever."
- 3.45 p.m.—Afternoon Tea.
- 4 p.m.—Dr. James Sprent, "Report of two cases of Myositis Ossificans."
- 4.15 p.m.—Dr. Ivan Maxwell, "The Sterols and their derivatives; a study in applied Bio-chemistry."

Discussion will be opened by Professor Marshall Allan on "The Therapeutic value of the Sterols in Ovarian Disease," and by Dr. Ewen Downie on "Hypercholesterinaemia in Diabetes," and by Professor P. MacCallum on "The Carcinogenic properties of the Sterols."

SATURDAY, APRIL 17th.

- 9 a.m.—Dr. H. Boyd Penfold, "Signs, symptoms and treatment of Saginata Taeniasis."
- 9.30 a.m.—Dr. Wright-Smith, "Coronary Obstruction: an analysis of 495 Postmortem cases."
- Discussion will be opened by Dr. Hume Turnbull and Dr. M. D. Silberberg.
- 10.30 a.m.—Presentation of Margaret Ryan Prize to Dr. J. F. Hughes.
- 10.45 a.m.—Morning Tea.
- 11 a.m.—Dr. Rupert Willis, "The structure of Teratomata."
- 11.30 a.m.—Dr. R. D. Wright, "Vascularization in Tuberculous Lungs."